

CHRIST CHURCH NEW MALDEN    WAYS TO GET IN TOUCH

If you have questions

Your child's class teacher is the best person to speak to about anything to do with your child. Class teachers are always available at the end of the day, which is the best time of day to tell your child's teacher about something or to ask any questions or raise any concerns. If you are not able to talk to your class teacher at the end of the day, you can always arrange a meeting through the school office. You can also contact:

- SENCO - Mrs Roe If your child has, or you think they might have, special educational needs (SEN) and the class teacher has not been able to answer your question, or if the issue is confidential, please speak to or email Mrs Roe - senco@ccnm.rbksch.org.
- Deputy Head - Mr Burkinshaw If you have questions or concerns about your child's teaching or learning, and the class teacher has not been able to help, or if the issue is confidential, please speak to or email Mr Burkinshaw - deputy@ccnm.rbksch.org.
- Headteacher - Miss White If you have a question or concern and nobody has been able to help, or if the issue is confidential, please speak to or contact Miss White - head@ccnm.rbksch.org.

If you have information for your child's teacher

If you have information for your child's teacher, the best time to talk is after school, or, if is urgent, in the morning. If that is not possible, you can email your child's teacher. Teachers will check their email before the start of the school day, so if you have information relevant to that day, please email by 8 a.m. Please only use email if you have information for your class teacher, if you have questions about your child, or their progress, speak to the class teacher, either at the end of the day, or by appointment.

Do email your child's teacher if, for example, your child is upset about something, they had a bad night, they are not feeling very well, they found some learning particularly hard, they are being collected by somebody different.
